The short season, under the direction of Mr. Marctzek, was commoneed has hight under the most favorable auspices. The opens was "La Somnambula".

The clief event of the night was, of course, the debut in America of Signora Gassier. The poetition which this artist holds makes it emineuity proper that we should note the leading points in her career. She is Spanish by hirth, and entered upon her operatic career at her birth-place, the city of Madrid. Subsequently Signora Gassier went to Italy, where she remained during several years, and completed her musical education. She was here engaged by the director of the Idalian opera at Paris, where she made her appearance in 1854, as Rosina, in "The Barber of Seville." She was successful with the most fastidious audience in the world, and the next season she sung in London, at the Drury Lane Theatre, then under the direction of Mr. Jarrett. Here Signora Gassier laid the foundation for a first-rate London reputation, which she has since fully sustained. After her engagement at Drury Lane we find our primadonna engaged by Mr. Willert Beale as a member of his great concert troupe, which included Grisl, Nautier-Didiée, and Mario. With this galaxy of artistic talent she made the tour of the provinces, and renewed her metropolitan triumphs. During the summer of 1857 Signora Gassier was engaged, with Sims Reeves, by M. Julien, and, as we have already said, she fairly divided the applause with the great tenor. In the winter and carry spring of this year she returned to Italy, and made a great furor at Rome. During the Carnival she received honors very rarely accorded to any yocallat under the chasiow of the Vatican. Having thus subdued Italy, France, and England, the Signora crosses the seas with her husband, (who had already tested the temper of the American public, and with no small degree of success, and makes her first essay on our soil. She came with a reputation airway as a subsequence of the contraction of the prima donna that we have say that no such execution has ever been heard here since the days of Mailorsa. Signora Gassier attempts and succeeds in accomplishing vocal flights far above the reach of ordinary or even extraordinary singers. At the close of the "Ah! non giange" the enthusiasm of the audience rose to the highest possible point. When the prima donna appeared before the curtain the immense assembly rose as one person, and greeted her with long and loud acclanations. Gracefully acceding to the demand of the house, Signora Gassier repeated the finale, performing with the greatest facility the grand coups, which had before astonished the audience. The same scene was repeated again, and then the delighted audience dispersed.

DECISIONS AT THE TREASURY DEPART-

Recent decisions published by the Secretary of the Treasury announce that "gun cotton" is liable only to a duty of fifteen per cent., as coming under the classification of "fulminates or fulminating powders," and that the 'root of quick grass," which is used in the manufacture of brushes, is liable to a duty of nineteen per cent., as belonging to the classification in schedule D of the tariff of 1857 of "jute, sisal grass, coir, and other vegetable substances, unmanufactured, not otherwise provided for." vided for.

Mr. IRONSIDE, from the committee on books, submitted a report in writing, which was read. The committee state that, as a general thing, they are opposed to the introduction of new text books, in consideration of the expense to which it puts the parents of the pupils; and the only changes which they think proper to make are—lst, the substitution of Warren's Common School Geography for the higher classes of the District schools, [provided they be furnished to the pupils of the public schools for six months from the first of September, 1858, at fifty cents per copy :] 2d, Worcester's Spelling Book in lieu of Swan's Second Speller, wherever that book is now in use. For the use of the primary schools, they recom-mend the First, Second, and Third Primary Readers of Hilliard's Series, in lieu of Swan's Primary and Grammar Hilliard's Series, in lieu of Swan's Primary and Grammar School Readers. The committee say they have understood that the whole series of Hilliard's Readers were recommended by their predecessors, and the primary schools were compelled to use those now on the list for the reason that the series of Primary Readers was not out of press; and they therefore suggest that as the series is now compilete, or will be farmished on application. the reason that the series of Primary Readers was not out of press; and they therefore suggest that as the series is now complete, or will be in the course of the next thirty days, they be substituted as they may be required for the formation of new classes. Referring to a resolution which passed the board, some months since, directing the teachers of the primary schools to form classes in English grammar, the committee further recommend assection the rules of the ones, which will be closed on the 6th of December; then and other papers relied upon as testimony, must be filled in the office on the before the morning of that day; the arguments, it any, within ten days thereafter.

Ordered, also, that this notice be published in the Union, Washington, D. C., and Daily News, New York, once a week for three weeks; the first of said publications to be at least sixty days before the 20th of December next, the day of hearing.

After some discussion the report was amended, on the motion of Mr. Price, by the insertion of the proviso above enclosed in brackets; and the several recommendations of the committee were then adopted.

Various bills were presented by the treasurer; which were approved and ordered to be paid.

The treasurer also presented an estimate of the contingent expenditures of the board for the current year ending June 30, 1859, and estimates of the expenditures of the several school districts for the same period; which were adopted.

Dr. Ironsides moved that a committee be appointed by the board of trustees to confer with the committees on public schools of the city councils as to the propriety and necessity of providing more suitable accommodations for the various primary schools; and the motion having been agreed to, the chair appointed Messrs. Ironsides, Willett, Price, and Lawrenson as said committee.

After some other unimportant business. The board adjourned.

RARE PLANIS.—We learn from the Intelligencer that within a few days past some large, rare, and valuable accessions have been made to the President's conservatory. The Commissioner of Public Buildings has personally visited Philadelphia and parts of New Jersey, where he has procured a great many new plants and flowers, many of them of great beauty or marked peculiarity. One of the most noteworthy is the Sago Palm, which has been placed on the lawn immediately on the south front of the mansion, where it forms an object calculated to attract general attention. It was obtained at Mount Holly, and is said to be almost the only one of the kind in the country. A large proportion of the other accessions are natives of the East Indies and Brazil, and such of them as will bear it and are suited to the purpose will be disposed throughout the President's grounds in handso e terra-cotta vases. These grounds have never before looked so diversified and agreeable as now, where not only the eye of taste, but the student of nature, can find copious employment and gratification.

THE WASHINGTON THEATRE. - We understand that Mr Stuart has let the Washington Theatre to Mr. John T. Ford, of Baltimore, until the 1st of December next, when Mr. S. will again assume the occupancy, and it will be conducted under the direction of Mr. Eytinge. Mr. Ford will open the Theatre on Monday next, and the opening performance will be made by Mr. Edmund Booth, who is now playing a successful engagement in Baltimore, and whose reputation has increased very rapidly within the last few years.

Good Chiars. - Many complaints have been made every day of the inferiority of the cigars sold in Washington, and as they are an almost necessary after-dinner luxury, it is quite a serious matter with far the larger portion of the male population. For the purpose of aiding such, we will mention that Mr. John C. Bacher, at the corner of Thirteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue, very rarely fails in giving satisfaction to all who purchase eigan of him. He is careful to keep none but the best, and his Havana cigars, we are assured, are of the very finest

FURTHER HEARING.—The three young men who were arrested last week for plundering the farms and gardens in the suburbs of the city were to have had an examination on Monday afternoon, before Justice Donn. Two of them, William Moore and William Dowling, were pres ent, but, in consequence of the non-attendance of the principal witness against them, the most serious charges were not proven. Moore was sent to the work house for ninety days as a vagrant, and Dowling gave security and paid the costs. As Humphrey did not appear, his case will go before the criminal court.

MRS. SOUTHWORTH'S NEW WORK.—The
Two Sisters; by Mrs. Emma D. E. N. Southworth, author of "lost Heires," "Misell Bride," "The Descreted Wife," "The Discarded Daughter," "The Curse of Clitton," "Retribution," "The Wife's Victory," "India," "Vivira; the Secret of Power," "The Three Beauties." &c., &c. Complete in two volumes, paper cover, price one dollar; or bound in one volume, cloth, for $1 25.

The Two Sisters is the most attractive book we have opened for a long time. Whoever reads the first page is sure to be carried on to the last. The author is remarkable for her warm and brilliant invention, her weath of imagery, her ready flow of ideas, her pathos, and her clear langible into the motives which govern the human heart; and therein, lies the charm of her pen-paintings. She gives you live characters, real men and women, so tangible that one almost feels the clasp of their hand, and hears the words they speak.
It is the best of Mrs. Southworth's nevels, containing deeper thought and embracing a deeper meaning than any of her preceding works, besides being in plot more ingenious and elaborate. It is a work which all may read with profit. It abounds with the most beautiful secunic descriptions; it displays an intimate acquaintance with all phanes of human character; and, withat, contains a moral of ineatmable value. The story is absorbingly interesting, every character being well drawn, and the incidents exciting. It is a gon that will well repay a careful persait. It must command a very large sale, as indeed do all the works of this accomplished author.
